Kindergarten Registration

Parents of in-coming kindergarteners: registration deadline for kindergarten is April 1, 2008. Please don't wait until April, however, and send them in now! Applications are available to download on the website. Include a copy of your child's birth certificate and immunization records when you register. Thank you, Office Staff

International Exchange Students

North Star is seeking families to host a few 10th grade international students through AFS Intercultural Program. AFS mission is to "work toward a more just and peaceful world by providing international and intercultural learning experiences to individuals, families, schools, and communities through a global volunteer partnership".

Watch for more information in the monthly newsletter later this week.
