Notice of Risk for Student Athletes

We realize that such activity involves the potential for injury that is inherent in all sports. We acknowledge that even with the best coaching, use of the most advance protective equipment, and strict observance of rules, injuries are a still a possibility. On rare occasions these injuries can be severe as to result in total disability, paralysis or even death. We the undersigned understand the dangers of practicing, playing and participating in sports. We specifically acknowledge we have carefully read and understand this Notice of Risk for Student Athletes.

I, _____, give my permission for my son/daughter, _____ to participate in _____(activity).

Code of Conduct

All competitions must be conducted with a high standard of courtesy, fair play and sportsmanship. All of those involved share responsibility.

Athletes: Athletes must demonstrate qualities of courtesy and good sportsmanship. All of those involved share responsibility.

Spectators: The spectators, both students and adults, need to demonstrate courtesy and good sportsmanship by cheering in a positive and appropriate manner for their team and never against the opponents. This is evidenced by the absence of booing or vulgarities. Spectators must show proper acceptance of officials' judgment and the coach's decisions.

Anyone not observing the Code of Ethics will be asked to leave and must contact the Athletic Director and Principal before returning to any other school events.

A student who participates in organized non-school sports competition after the starting date of the season in that sport, is ineligible for the school team the remainder of the year. This includes but is not limited to club sports, and church and civic programs. All high school athletes are subject to the rules and regulations of the Idaho High School Activities Association (www.idhsaa.org).

Parents are responsible for the transportation to and from games; parents may choose to arrange carpools on their own accord, but athletes are not allowed to transport other student athletes to away games. The coach must have written notice of whom is allowed to transport the student other than the student's own parent.
